

ATTEND THE LEADERSHIP FORUM & TRAINING EVENT FOR CREDIT-New Orleans 2023

CEA is pleased to announce a professional development opportunity for members who attend the 2023 CEA Leadership Forum and wish to earn professional development credit. CEA has partnered with Ashland University (Ashland Ohio) to make both continuing education credit (1 CEU) and graduate education credit (1 semester hour) available for CEA members who attend the conference and complete the required assignments for this professional development option. Ashland University is accredited by the National Council for the Accreditation of Teacher Education (NCATE) and graduate education workshop credit earned from this opportunity may be recognized by other universities and colleges.

Formal registration requirements for earning graduate credit will be explained at the pre-conference seminar meeting to be held on Monday morning at the conference. General requirements for earning credit will include: 1) attendance to all conference sessions approved to participant's conference plan and 2) completion of a lesson plan implementing a teaching strategy/content that was presented at the CEA Conference.

Tuition

Graduate Education Credit	$273.00
Continuing Education Credit	$ 40.00

Required Pre-Conference Workshop Session

A required pre-conference workshop session will be held Monday February 6, 2023. To be eligible to receive credit you must attend this workshop.

Workshop Contact

David Webb
Gill Center for Business and Economic Education
Ashland University
Ashland, Ohio 44805
dwebb@ashland.edu
419-289-5740