CEA Vision Statement:
CEA is the recognized leader in corrections education both in the U.S. and internationally. The community we support actively shares information, best practices, experience, and mutual strength.

CEA Philosophy Statement:
Education is the key to effective rehabilitation. Detained and adjudicated juvenile and adult students need to learn to reassess their values, goals, and priorities in life in a way that differs from their time prior to incarceration. Acquiring personal, social, and technical skills are necessary for a successful and permanent reentry into society as productive citizens, parents, and coworkers.

CEA Mission Statement:
CEA sponsors events, presents continuing professional education, and publishes research and news about the corrections industry for the benefit of its members and the correctional sector as a whole. Our members are educators in juvenile and adult correctional settings charged with helping inmates develop the life skills and education they need in order to return to society and live fulfilling lives.

- Legislative advocacy for issues important to the field of correctional education.
- CEA disseminates research to put information in the hands of taxpayers and legislators and facilitates research through the online, searchable CEA journal.
- Standards and accreditation for adult and juvenile facilities, jails, and detention centers using CEA’s Standards for Correctional Education Programs. Alliances with the American Correctional Association, the American Jail Association, Office of Correctional Education, and others.
- Opportunities with other correctional educators at national and regional conferences and the Annual International Conference and Leadership Forum.
- CEA Publications- an academic journal publishing research studies and articles of interest to practitioners. The journal is published 3 times a year.
- News & Notes - a quarterly newsletter providing up-to-date information on events and trends in the field.
- The Trust for Insuring Educators (TIE)-CEA members are eligible for low-cost insurance benefits through TIE. TIE offers a variety of plans including life, auto, health and professional liability insurance. Call 1-800-821-7303 ext. 225 or visit: www.tie.com for more information.
- Voting Privileges give individuals the opportunity to ensure that their voice is heard on our Executive Board.
